IT REALLY DOES MATTER WHO
YOU CHOOSE AS A PARTNER.

Hudson Housing Capital has long served as a trusted financial partner to tax credit investors and developers alike. Our track record of delivering results continues to attract a growing stream of investor capital. Hudson has consistently provided capital to its partners through these challenging financial times.

While Hudson Housing Capital has the experience and depth of management to understand the most complicated opportunities, it is the simple things that set us apart: care in dealing with our partners, thorough underwriting and meticulous asset management. And private ownership that understands the value of building relationships for the long term.

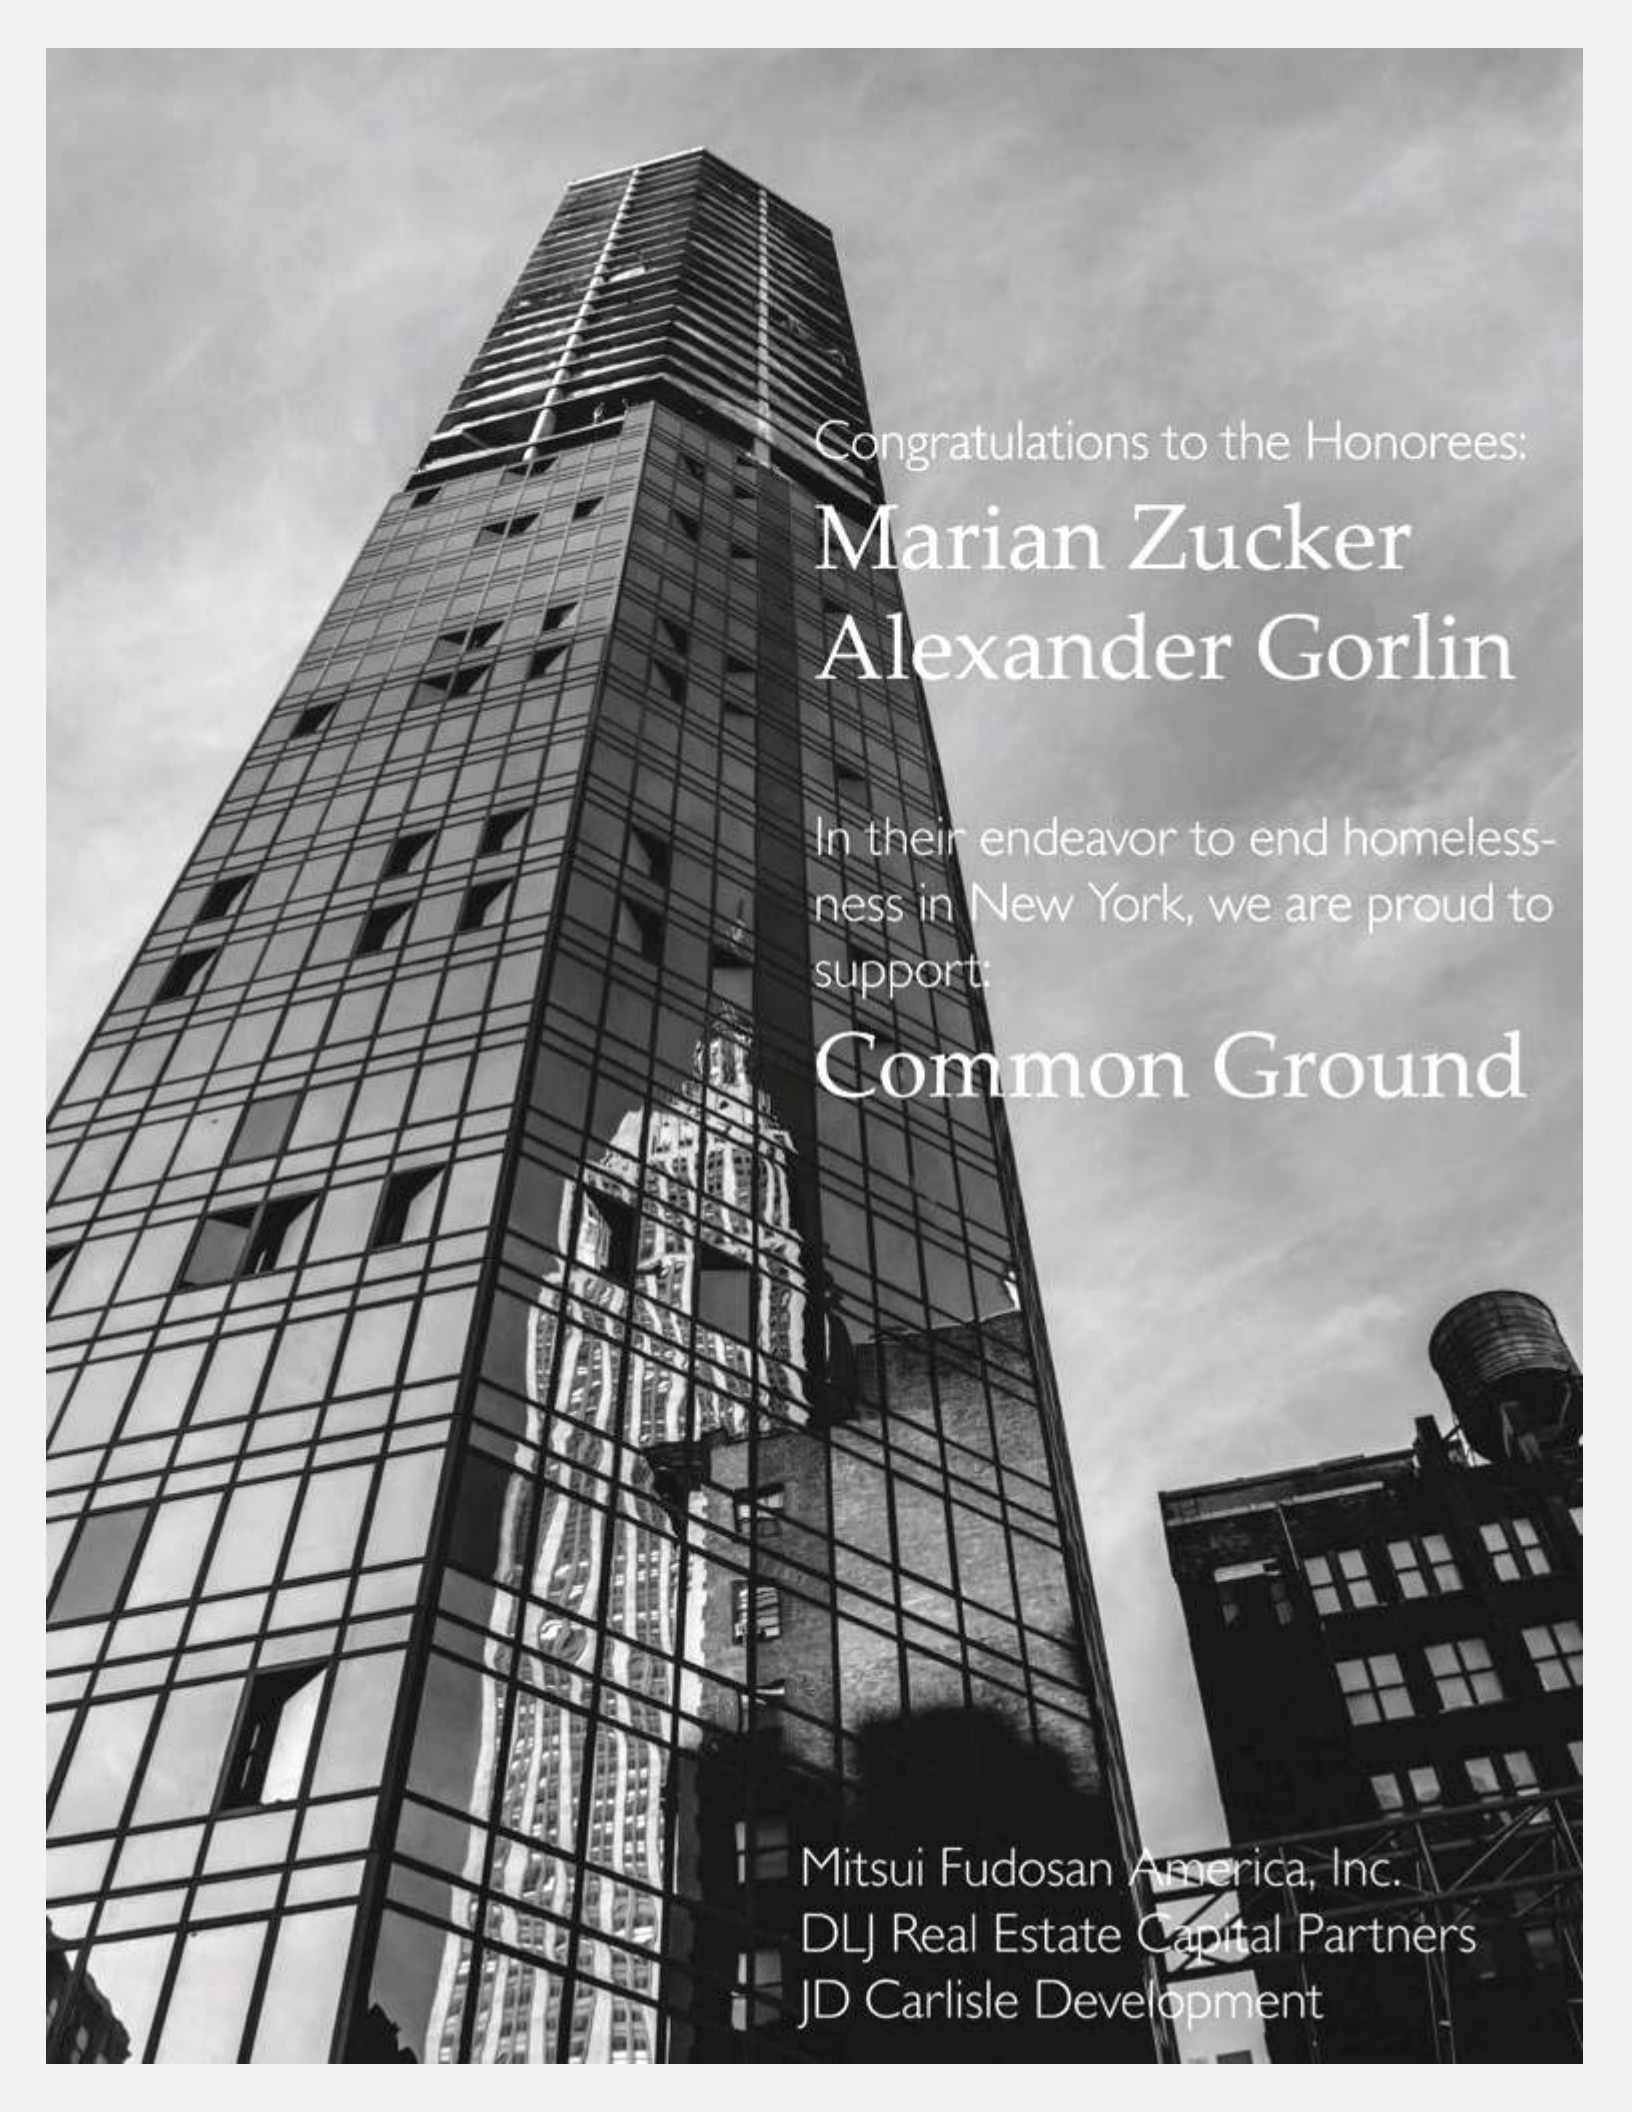

Talk to those who have worked with us. It really does matter who you choose as a partner.
